Shane Jacobson takes Kenny on a tour of the world's dunnies.

Are you guys insane? Why on earth would you do something so stupid as to sell only one thing?

In answer to your first question, No. In answer to your second question, we feel that if we were going to just sell one thing for the rest of the company's lifetime we don't think we'd make very much money, so we keep things fresh by selling a new thingy every day.

That means it won't be here tomorrow!
